IN MEMORIAM

SIR PAUL THURLOW

Knighted Nov. 19, 1925

Died April 17, 1956

Welcome to Central Church

To the many visitors that come to Central Church we bid a cordial welcome. We urge you to sign the guest book before you leave and, if possible, tarry for a few moments for friendly acquaintance after the service.

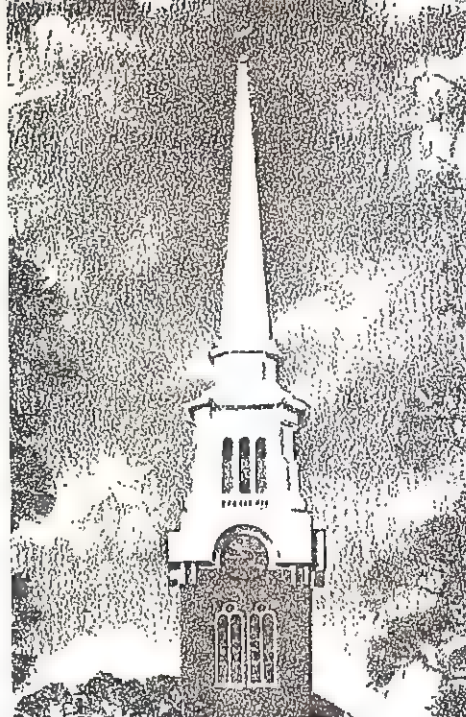

Central Church was formed almost fifty years ago out of the union of three downtown Congregational churches: the Whitefield Church, the Prospect Street Church and the North Church. The building in which we are located was the property of the North Church. First known as "The Third Religious Society of Newburyport", the first building on this property was built before the American Revolution (1768). The present building was erected in 1862, following a fire. A recent re-modelling (1953) entirely changed the character of the sanctuary and modernized the parish house. You are invited to tour the building if you desire.
